GOAL SCORING

PRODUCE MORE OFFENSIVELY

Puck handling is essential in every aspect of the game. Players will basically have a puck on their stick the entire camp and will receive as many high speed reps as they can handle with extremely high quality coaching and instruction. Our unique and effective drills combined with an infectious atmosphere are sure to soak in.

DECEPTION

MASTER BEING MYSTERIOUS

In order to produce more offensively, players have to be harder to play against, and in order to be harder to play against, players have to become unreadable and need to get comfortable handling the puck outside of their bodies. There are several ways to do this. We will cover them all in a very intense and realistic environment. From one-handed protection to puck-placement to self-passes, your skaters will walk away feeling better about their puck protection and deception tools!
